Mission Statement

Ponsonby Intermediate School's Mission Statement is to provide every child with every chance to develop their full potential through a total commitment for achieving excellence.

Ponsonby Intermediate is a leading, well resourced contributing school with a roll of 522 students.

We provide a quality education that acknowledges individual potential and ability.

The school draws from a diverse community, our mixed ethnic and cultural groups make up a rich school life.

Ponsonby Intermediate is an inner city school which is much sought after.

The school enjoys a strong and supportive parent community that assists in many ways both inside and outside of the classroom.

Special Learning Programmes

(ESOL) English as a Second Language has a specialist teacher and assistants working with this group.

We have a number of specialised teachers committed to providing learning for our students.

Our experienced Guidance Team are on site, along with our well resourced IT centre.

Our staff are committed to working to improve learning and teaching for all students.
